BATTLE HYMN OF THE CHASES

TUNE: "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

Our ancient sires in England raised their standards to the sky;
For country and posterity their aims were ever high;
They always did their duty, unafraid to do or die.
The clan goes marching on!

CHORUS: Glory to our grand old family,
Virile, worthy, brave and loyal!
"Forward" ever all ye Chases!
The clan goes marching on.

Aquilla, William, Luke and Tom' were fathers of our clan;
Aquilla Chase was virile, William was a sturdy man;
Posterity of Chases facing danger, never ran.
The clan goes marching on!

Samuel was a signer of a famous document;
In Congress and in courts of justice many years he spent;
He was an ardent patriot and what he said he meant.
The clan goes marching on.

Ann Chase was a heroine with weapon in her hand;
The enemy retreated when she gave her stern command;
She saved the flag, the men, the treasure of her native land.
The clan goes marching on!

Irah was a preacher; Dudley servant of his state;
Salmon is among the men we know as good and great;
Though Wells was in danger, never did he heistate.
The clan goes marching on!

Josiah and brave Joshua were fighters, we are told;
Carlton was a preacher who brought sinners to the fold;
Among the world's great families our family is pure gold.
The clan goes marching on!

The Clan of Chase is mighty—many thousand brave and strong;
In seventy-six a hundred Chases fought to right a wrong;
Many towns now bear our name. Sure, let us sing that song—
The clan goes marching on!

The sons of Chase have courage any task or foe to face;
Our daughters all are lovely with their beauty, charm and grace;
The leaven of our family is a blessing to the race.
The clan goes marching on!

(A) INTRODUCTION

HE Chase Family is among the forty-nine “best families” selected by the American Historical-Genealogical Society for whom the Society has published family histories during the past few years. The Chase Family has been prominent in the British Empire and in the United States, its members having played important rôles in war and in peace. Family pride is a commendable trait and should be cultivated. All Chases have just cause to be proud of their family history and traditions.

In references No. 3 and No. 7 we find the following regarding the origin and meaning of the name Chase:

“The name, Chase, was given to those people who resided in that part of the forest or park termed ‘the chase’—an open piece of ground for the herding of deer and other game. This surname has been strongly ramified in the United States.”

The data in this volume is gathered from reliable sources. We have selected what we consider the most important material. Many of the daughters, and sons for whom no issue was shown, have been omitted from the pedigrees. A missing symbol indicates that a name has been omitted. Those desiring further information are advised to consult the volumes mentioned in the list of References.

The compiler hopes that, in producing this volume he is bringing to the Chase Family information which will be of interest and value to them, and that he is rendering an important service to the public. He and his associates will be glad to give their cooperation to members of the family who are interested in having a complete genealogy of the family published.

Unless otherwise plainly shown, the persons in this volume whose names are accompanied by three figures are children of the immediately preceding persons bearing immediately preceding numbers. All persons in each group bearing the same letter as a part of their numbers, are directly related. The generations of the descendants of those bearing numbers of three figures are represented as follows. However, some of our material is published as copied from various records without rearrangement according to this system.

Generations	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Symbols	(1), etc.	(A), etc.	(a), etc.	1, etc.	A, etc.
Generations	6th	7th	8th	9th	10th
Symbols	a, etc.	(I), etc.	(i), etc.	I, etc.	i, etc.

Abbreviations: add., address; b., born; ch., children; coll., college; d., died; d. y., died young; d. w. i., died without issue; dau., daughter; grad., graduated; l., lives, lived; m., married, moved; s., son, succeeded; d. s. p., died without issue; d. v. p., died before father; univ., university; a date standing alone, and not preceded by a letter, is always the date of birth.

(B) THE CHASE COAT OF ARMS

COAT of Arms is an emblem or a device which is displayed by titled persons, persons of royal blood, and their descendants. Coats of Arms were originally used for purposes of identification and recognition on the field of battle as well as in civil life.

It is claimed by some writers that Coats of Arms, in a crude form, were used by Noah’s sons after the flood. There are records of other Coats of Arms, in one crude form or another, at different periods of ancient history. Heraldry, however, as we know it today, did not become of much importance until soon after the invasion of England by William the Conqueror, A. D. 1066. Heraldry became of general interest at about the time of the Crusades.

The Chase Coat of Arms shown in the front of this volume is Arms of the Chases of Berkshire, England. Coats of Arms very similar to it are used by the Chases of Much Hadham, Herts. and by many other families. Numerous branches of the Chase family use Coats of Arms resembling it.

This is the most widely used of all Chase Coats of Arms. It is described in BURKE’S GENERAL ARMORY, BURKE’S LANDED GENTRY, BURKE’S PEERAGE AND BARONETAGE and other reliable works on heraldry, in some cases accompanied by illustrations. Crozier records it for Thomas and Aquilla Chase who settled in Massachusetts in 1637 and whose pedigree is contained in this volume. It has been used for generations by their descendants and by many other American branches of the Chase family.

	HERALDIC LANGUAGE	ENGLISH DESCRIPTION
Arms	Gules, four crosses flory, two and two, or; on a canton azure a lion passant or.	Four golden crosses, arranged in pairs, on a red shield which bears in the corner a golden lion on a blue square.
Crest	A demi-lion rampant or, holding a cross flory of the field.	A golden half-lion holding a red cross.
Motto	Forward.	Forward.

Sir Bernard Burke, of Heralds College, London, said “Heraldry is prized by all who can show honorable ancestry or wish to found honorable families.”

Besides its family significance this Coat of Arms makes an excellent mural decoration and inspires the admiration and comment of all who see it.

It is quite appropriate that members of the Chase family who have a pride in their ancestry should display the family Coat of Arms, in proper colors.

(F) PROMINENT CHASES OF PAST GENERATIONS

ANN CHASE: patriot; b. Ireland, 1809; came to U. S. 1818; in 1833 removed to Tampico, Mex., where she met and married Franklin Chase, U. S. consul there. While the Mexican war was in progress, she remained at the consulate to protect American records during the enforced absence of her husband. On one occasion an infuriated mob attempted to pull down flag that floated over her residence; but, with revolver in hand, she defied the crowd, and declared that no one should touch the flag except over her dead body. Through her instrumentality, later, the city of Tampico was taken without expenditure of life or treasure.

REV. BENJAMIN: D.D.; clergyman; b. New Hampshire, 1789; grad. Middlebury, 1814. His Presbyterian ministerial life was spent in Southwest; where he did a noble missionary work circulating the Scriptures.

BISHOP CARLTON: P. E. clergyman; b. Hopkinton, N. H., 1794; grad. Dartmouth, 1817; pastor at Bellows Falls, Vt., for twenty-four years; consecrated first bishop of New Hampshire, in Phila., 1844.

HON. DUDLEY: statesman and jurist; b., Cornish, N. H., 1771; mem. of legislature, 1805-12; speaker of the house, 1808-12; U. S. Senator, 1813-17 and 1825-31. He was chief justice of Vermont Supreme Court, 1817-21, retiring in 1831 and devoting himself to farming, of which he was very fond.

REV. FREDERIC AUGUSTUS: clergyman, b. King's Ferry, N. Y., 1833. After ordination as a Presbyterian minister, he had charge of churches in Parishville and Lyndonville, N. Y. From 1868-70 he was president of a female seminary in Lyons, Iowa, and in 1872 became professor of national sciences in Fisk Univ., Nashville, Tenn.

GEORGE: lawyer; b. Portland, Me., 1849; Valedictorian, Yale, 1870, and at Columbia Law School, N. Y. C., 1873; later became professor of law at Columbia; author of "Ready Legal Adviser" (1881).

(H) CHASE TOWNS, ETC.

There are in the United States towns as follows:

CHASE: Ala., Kans., La., Md., Mich., Nebr., S. Dak.; CHASEBURG: Wis.; CHASE CITY: Va.; CHASELEY: N. Dak.; CHASE MILLS: N. Y.; CHASEVILLE: N. Y. There are also in the United States numerous counties, townships, streets, avenues, etc., bearing the name "Chase". This is eloquent testimony to the high esteem in which the name is held in this country.

(I) CHASE CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES

The compiler of these records has made up a list from city and telephone directories of the United States, and from other sources, as follows. Care was taken to eliminate, wherever possible, persons known or believed to be colored, or of nationalities other than British and American:

Alabama.....	5	Maine.....	128	Oklahoma.....	21
Arizona.....	8	Maryland.....	38	Oregon.....	17
Arkansas.....	4	Massachusetts.....	637	Pennsylvania.....	140
California.....	398	Michigan.....	199	Rhode Island.....	110
Colorado.....	52	Minnesota.....	80	South Carolina.....	2
Connecticut.....	110	Mississippi.....		South Dakota.....	5
District of Columbia...	60	Missouri.....	59	Tennessee.....	17
Delaware.....	7	Montana.....	13	Texas.....	55
Florida.....	91	Nebraska.....	34	Utah.....	43
Georgia.....	12	Nevada.....		Vermont.....	62
Idaho.....	11	New Hampshire.....	112	Virginia.....	14
Illinois.....	150	New Jersey.....	68	Washington.....	33
Indiana.....	48	New Mexico.....	2	West Virginia.....	10
Iowa.....	61	New York.....	304	Wisconsin.....	79
Kansas.....	24	North Carolina.....	5	Wyoming.....	5
Kentucky.....	18	North Dakota.....	5
Louisiana.....	12	Ohio.....	139	Total.....	3,507

To secure an estimate of the "Chase population" of the United States, we figure as follows:

(a)
Multiply
by

Only about half the names were taken from each directory consulted..... 2

Half of the Chases reside in the rural districts or in small towns having no printed directories which were available to us..... 2

There are an average of more than four persons in each American family..... 4

Since Chase daughters marry and have as many descendants as the Chase sons, there are as many descendants of "other names" as there are bearing the name Chase (though it is much easier to locate the latter)..... 2

By multiplying each figure of column (a) into the preceding figure, we have a total of..... 32

Conservative estimate of the Chase population of the United States, one-half of whom bear the name Chase and one-half of whom bear other names..... 112,224

The estimated Chase population of any of the states may be obtained by multiplying the figures shown by 32. The Chase population of the British Empire is probably equal to that in the United States.

(J) RELIGIONS OF THE CHASES

For several centuries the Chases lived in England, North Ireland and Scotland. Most of the British (with the exception of those living in South Ireland), and, likewise, the Chases were and are of the Protestant faith.

There are a few Chases of the Catholic faith in the British Isles, but it is estimated that their number does not exceed twenty per cent of the entire Chase population.

The Chases who came from the British Isles to America continued in the faith of their fathers, for the most part, though their descendants in this country today will be found in the memberships of practically all the various churches. It is estimated that of all the Chases in America who are church members, at least eighty per cent are of the Protestant faith.

Biographical sketches of thirty Chases appear in WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA. Their religious faiths are shown as follows: CONGREGATIONALIST, 2; EPISCOPAL, 1; PRESBYTERIAN, 1; UNIVERSALIST, 2; RELIGION NOT STATED, 24.
